ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Food waste is something we all know about. It has become one of the biggest problems in the world. As one part of the world suffers from the lack of food, the other part throws food away. Globally, we throw away 1/3 of all the food we produce. That's about 1.3 billion tons a year and about 200 kg per person. There are four tiers to waste management to reduce its environmental impacts such as pollution prevention and source reduction; reuse or redistribution of unwanted, surplus materials; treatment, reclamation, and recycling of materials within the waste; and disposal through incineration, treatment, or land burial. In this workshop you will get to know about several facets of waste management techniques

SUB-THEMES:

- Entrepreneurship in Waste Management
- Young Professionals in Waste Management
- Vermicomposting: Food waste to organic fertilizer
- Food waste management at Household level
- Public partnership in Food waste management
- Stakeholders views regarding sustainable waste management

ABOUT JAIPUR

Jaipur is the capital of India's Rajasthan state. It evokes the royal family that once ruled the region and that, in 1727, founded what is now called the Old City, or "Pink City" for its trademark building color. With gardens, courtyards, and museums, part of it is still a royal residence. On 6 July 2019, UNESCO World Heritage Committee inscribed Jaipur as the "Pink City of India" among its World Heritage Sites. It is well connected to the rest of the country by rail, road, and air. The sites worth visiting are Amer fort, Jaigarh fort, Nahargarh fort, City palace, Jantar Mantar, Hawa Mahal, Albert hall museum, Galtaji, and many more.
